1 Outstanding large oil painting on canvas - an allegorical scene of the end of the Confederate States of America. The scene takes place in a large church or temple with an open air view to the sky. An angel of death stands beside a large column at the left, a sword in her hand. She watches over a long procession led by Robert E Lee, James Longstreet, John B Gordon and Nathan Bedford Forrest. The group behind them are carrying flags as they walk away from a coffin before an altar. Above the altar is a smoke shrouded scene of a cavalry charge. At the top center, above the angel's wing, a group of mounted riders ascend to heaven.

This magnificent painting hangs in my dining room. I bought it about 20 years ago from a now defunct auction house in the deep South. Size is 33 X 54 (sight) in a beautiful custom frame 41 X 72. A few scattered small scratches, abrasions and minor wrinkles, overall very nice condition.

I will deliver in person at mutual convenience west to Illinois or south to Florida. Shipping to be arranged beyond that distance. 24,500.

2 In 26 years of issuing catalogs I have offered thousands of superb rarities. This item is no doubt in the top 50. Exceptionally rare autographed carte de visite of Christopher "Kit" Carson. Photo by J A Scholten, St. Louis. Small 3/4" crease from top edge at upper right, tax stamp on reverse partly peeled, otherwise VF. Unconditionally guaranteed genuine of course. 22,500.

3 An icon of western photography. Original 1880's cdv of 'the dirty little coward - who shot Mr Howard - and laid poor Jesse in his grave.'

Reverse inscribed in period purple ink "From the Jesse James House - 1318 Lafayette & 13th - St. Joe Mo". The only photo of Bob Ford I've had in 30 years as a full time dealer. Minor insignificant soiling. 4,250.

4 Prior to my acquisition of this piece a few months ago, I never knew the image existed. Exceptionally rare cdv, imprint in block lettering below "Mary - Jesse - Children of Jesse James". Jesse looks about 7 or 8, Mary about 3 or 4, dating the image to 1882-83. No photographers imprint. Deep bold tones, slight soiling. 3,250.

6 Rare and quite large signed photo Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii. Actual image 6 1/2 X 8 1/2 on larger pale gray card mount. In expensive custom frame (not shown). Couple insignificant small spots at extreme right edge, near mint. 2,400.

7 Very rare war date autographed letter signed of Stonewall Jackson - "T. J. Jackson" - Dec 22, 1862. In ink, on lined foldover letter sheet 5 X 8, addressed to Rev R J Stewart, Chaplain 6th North Carolina, thanking him for Christmas gifts. "Your letter of the 21st and the accompanying presents from Miss Makall, Mrs J. D. Stewart & Mrs Makalls sister of Baltimore have been received. Please thank the ladies very kindly. I hope some time to have the honor of making their acquaintance. Very gratefully yours - T J Jackson". Written only nine days after Fredericksburg from his winter quarters, Caroline County VA. The Rev Stewart had been the pastor of St Pauls Church, Alexandria VA, and had been dragged from his pulpit by union soldiers for failing to mention President Lincoln in his prayers. Excellent condition. Six lined note penned on interior page gives family provenance. Expected light folds from mailing, excellent. 16,000.

8 Rare 9 1/2 creamware pitcher. Large profile portrait Washington "He in Glory - America in Tears". Full length standing image "Jefferson", holding document. Cartouche under spout with owners initials PHE, above eagle and stars. Totally invisible restoration to a couple of cracks, appearance is pristine. In 26 years of collecting American patriotic ceramics I have only seen two examples of the standing Jefferson, and I own them both. A prize for the connoisseur. (NOTE that the tiny white spots to right of Jefferson's head are reflections). 17,000.

9 One of the finest folk art canes in America. From a distance it appears to be made from vertebrae discs, but closer inspection reveals that it is finely carved ivory made to resemble vertebrae, with the individual pieces secured by over 100 small pins that appear to be baleen or possibly gutta percha. Topped by nicely detailed dogs head. Along the upper shaft the lettering is scrimshawed and inlaid with red sealing wax "Presented to Lieut Gen Winfield Scott by Fred Benke Turner, carver, Paterson NJ, A Soldier in the Mexican War". Near tip of shaft similar letters read "Down with Treason". Obviously given to Scott near the outbreak of the Civil War. Excellent condition with original 2" iron tip. 14,000.

10 (a late addition that fit in this empty space) 1942 Louisville Slugger black bat, impressed silver lettering "St Louis Cardinals - Worlds Champions 1942", with names or simulated signatures of the entire team impressed in gold. On the narrow part of the barrel is carved (and gilded) "To Our Dear Little Pals Martin, Arthur and Robert - Hoping You Continue to Love Baseball - From All the Cardinals". Expected minor scratches and marks, excellent. 700.

11 Rare John Adams creamware punch bowl, 10 1/2 diameter, 4 1/2 high. All the more exceptional in that all five transfers are American patriotic subjects. Center of bowl (not shown) is ship on green ocean, flying RWB American flag. Portrait "John Adams - President of the United States", cherub, woman with cornucopia, Justice with scales. Next is crossed flags, Liberty cap, Revolutionary War poem about Warren, Montgomery and Washington. Next is GW, Franklin, Map of United States. Finally a colonial soldier with his foot on the British lion "By Virtue and Valour We Have Freed Our Country, Extended Our Commerce and Laid the Foundation of a Great Empire". Appearance is superb, excellent plus, but my notes say there has been restoration to some cracks and base chips. My restorer is very good. 13,000.

12 One of the finest Henry Clay items in existence. Massive relief molded plaque in original gilt frame 29 X 34. The photos have a bluish tint, but the actual background color is black. Floor is gray and bronze, red/black tablecloth, fleshtone face. At left is a silver colored shield with a 12 line quote explaining his credo. The multiple level relief design is surrounded by an incredibly intricate border depicting Liberty, Justice, scenes of science & industry, much more. Tablet below his feet inscribed "Designed and Prometheotyped by C Younglove Haynes of Philadelphia, from a spirited daguerreotype taken expressly for the work by England & Gunn, sanctioned by the signature of its great prototype, the Venerated Sage of Ashland - Hon Henry Clay. Design patented Nov 12 1850". Reverse with large 11 X 20 makers label giving the full story and all the details of the work. From the front you would swear that the piece was molded hard rubber, thermoplastic (like daguerreotype cases) or wax. In fact it is very finely molded plaster with an overcoat of paint or other colored matrix. Generally excellent condition with the exception of several fine cracks going across the piece. Quite heavy, weighing almost 30 pounds. Possibly the only example extant. I do not intend to ship this piece, but will personally deliver west to Illinois or south to Florida. 17,500.

13 Incredible blacksmith made iron horse bit, each side being a nicely detailed 9" coffin hilt Bowie knife with a 5 1/2" clip point blade. Wonderful attention to detail. The outer sides of both the cutting & false edges are beveled. Coffin hilts are overlaid with finely cut & filed brass scales, secured with iron rivets. Overall superb condition, light pitting to iron surfaces as expected. Mid 19th century. 5,750.

14 Excessively rare (believed to be one of three examples known!) Carte de visite of Alexander Gardner himself, a self portrait taken during a visit with Major W F M Army, the famous Indian scout. The photo is erroneously identified on the reverse as E Z C Judson (Ned Buntline), but is obviously not him. Army visited the White House on New Years Day 1862 dressed in mountain man buckskins. Gardner photographed Army, and then dressed himself in this outfit, complete with tomahawk & bow. The Navajo rug beside him was given by Army to President Lincoln. Bold and bright, small crease on the blanket. Brady Washington imprint. 3,250.

15 One of the very best enameled cigarette cases, sterling silver 3 1/2 X 2 1/2. Gorgeous girl hugs a miniature Mercedes, exclaiming "Mein Benz!!" Intricately tooled guilloche background in pearly white enamel. Push button clasp is a cabochon sapphire. Pristine condition but for a tiny pinprick nick at the extreme upper left edge. 3,950.

- 16 Exceptional autographed letter signed John Singleton Mosby, Dec 11, 1910, written while visiting Hartford. To Fontaine "Fount" Beatie, one of the original members of Mosby's command. 45 lines on a folded letter sheet from The Garde (hotel), Hartford. "I dine today with Major Gibson, an Old Union soldier. Next Wednesday I deliver my last lecture... President Taft's brother will introduce me... I hope the news will reach the White House... Yesterday the head of Colts Arms Factory sent his automobile for me (I have surrendered to the automobile) and showed me his factory. I told them that I had one bullet still in me & four bullet holes made by Colt's pistols & that I had a desire to see how they are made... each of my men carried two Colts revolvers and probably made some holes... the Colt people presented me with a fine pistol..." Sharp and bold black ink, excellent condition. Pencil note that it was purchased from Mary Benjamin in 1952. 6,250.
- 17 Classic Lincoln-Hamlin jugate ferrotype in very bold, bright condition. A couple small emulsion blemishes at upper left, tiniest pinprick black specks seen only with magnifier. Original pin resoldered. Displays very well - if you have good eyesight you can identify the candidates from 10 feet away! 2,350.
- 18 Rare 1872 Grant - Wilson jugate ferro. Portraits bright. Tiny depression (dimple) on Grants head. Not cut perfectly round - there's a small straight edge at very bottom. Original pin. A nice example at a very reasonable price. 1,850.
- 19 Very rare George Washington inaugural button, Albert 7B, Sullivan 1789-26. Known as the "indentee border", circle of uniform indentations around border. At center "GW - Long Live the President", with radiating sunburst. Nice XF with original shank. A comparable but only slightly nicer piece in Stacks sale of the Cobb collection brought $19,000! 6,750.
- 20 Copper 1861 10 centimes coin of Napoleon III. His portrait has been carefully reengraved to depict a couple having intercourse. Clearly displayed sex organs, while a dog licks them from below! VF 575.
- 21 Unique 1" gold locket, filigree engraving, inlaid blue enamel. When opened the right side is engraved "H Clay Obit June 29 1852, age 75". At left is a lock of his hair under glass. Obviously unique, pristine. 2,250.
- 22 Rare variety George Washington button, similar to Albert 20, but this is 20 mm instead of 25 mm. Original shank, choice AU, superb. 4,250.
- 23 Nice Lincoln token 1864-37, portrait, For Pres, reverse eagle, flags, drum. Brass, nice XF. 185.
- 24 Superb gold quartz watch charm, masonic keystone with alternating white & rose quartz panels, lots of gold. Reverse engraved "James B Little, Cyrus Chapter No 15 RAM [Royal Arch Masons], Yreka California 1883". Only a minuscule portion of gold quartz objects have California presentations. 2,250.
- 25 Circular 7/8" gold quartz photo locket, initial "E" made of 4 separate quartz panels. Reverse with gold masonic compass/square in high relief. Fancy engraving. Thin crack on vertical bar of E. 1,200.
- 26 Rare tin litho tobacco tag, jugate Harrison - Morton on bright blue. Two tiny holes at edge, excellent, previously unseen. 100.
- 27 11/16" uniform button "The Kings American Regiment". Numeral 4 within Tudor rose, raised initials SF on reverse for maker Samuel Freeman. Excavated, original shank, most of lettering still readable because the gilt was protected in the sunken letters. The unit was raised in New York by loyalists (Tories) in 1777, renamed the 4th Amer Regt in 1781, disbanded in 1784. I sold the only other example I've seen (larger and nicer dug condition) a couple of years ago for $2750. 900.
- 28 Extremely rare Harrison log cabin brooch that I've never seen before. Instead of the normal "Harrison & Reform" slogan, this reads "HARD CIDER". Original pin intact on reverse. Basically excellent, but if you tip it to the light you can see inconsistencies in the adhesion of the black background to the glass. A superb little gem for the advanced collector! 4,350.
- 29 Magnificent large gold watch 2 1/8 diameter, by American Waltham. Both sides of the heavy case are fully inlaid with gold quartz, partitioned with two tone gold panels. The obverse is amazing. Central device of black quartz divided into quarters, 1/4" circle of gray-white panels divided into eighths. A four pointed cross is done in deep rose quartz, while the outer border is eight scallops of lighter rose. Back side of case is one large circular panel 1 1/4 diameter, gray/white quartz with lots of gold. Superb condition, but not running.
- This watch was found by a well known dealer in northern California, who sold it to one of the country's foremost collectors for $65,000! It was subsequently discovered that the quartz work was not of the period, but done in recent years by a skilled jeweler. It was of course returned for a refund, and the dealer later sold it to me for a fraction of his original cost. An absolutely stunning attention getter, available now for 6,500.
- 30 Exceedingly rare straight razor by John Creswick, Sheffield. Molded horn handle with impressed portrait "Abraham Lincoln". It didn't photograph well, but the design is clear and bold. 1,250.

- 386 Very rare mid 19th century northern plains fighting knife, probably Blackfoot. 12" long, wide double edged blade. Guardless horn grip wrapped in hide strip, secured by hand made copper rivets. Pommel end is missing. Purchased from Ted Trotta. 1,600.
- 387 Nice pair silvered Alpaca - Eberle spurs, raised floral and geometric panels. Excellent 300.
- 388 1889 pay voucher signed by legendary western gunfighter Henry 'Heck' Thomas. 3 1/2 X 8, Fort Smith Ark.
